Contact details

Where you have provided us with your contact details (e.g. your name, job title, telephone and/or email and postal addresses) or we have a record of these as a result of professional contacts formed in the course of our work, we may use these details to provide you with information on our services, examples of recent work or relevant professional opinion pieces/news. Generally this will be in the form of an emailed newsletter. These details will be used only by us and will not be passed on to any third-party company.

If you do not wish to be contacted for this purpose, please email us at info@csaenvironmental.co.uk or you can use the 'unsubscribe' button at the bottom of our email newsletters to stop receiving these at any time.

Website

CSA Environmental's website does not automatically capture or store personal data from visitors to the site, other than to log the user's IP address and session information such as the duration of the visit and the nature of the browser used. This information is used only for administration of the site system and in the compilation of statistics to assess the use of the site.

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

Our website, csaenvironmental.co.uk, requires cookies in order to operate fully.

Most web browsers allow some control of cookies through browser settings. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage and delete them, visit www.allaboutcookies.org

Access to data

You have the right to be told what personal information we hold about you on our databases. To request this, you should write to us at CSA Environmental, Dixies Barns, High Street, Ashwell, Hertfordshire SG7 5NT.
